Dudley Dodson, 36, of RFD 235, Fairfax Station, died yesterday at Alexandria Hospital of injuries suffered Saturday night in a head-on truck and car collision in which two Government girls lost their lives.

Killed instantly in the crash on Mount Vernon Memorial Highway was Mrs. Mary Mullen Sabbow, 24, a Fort Belvoir secretary, who was driving the car. A passenger, Miss Faye Finley, 25, Department of Defense employee, died at Alexandria Hospital.

Two other passengers, Miss Jane Dickey, 23, and Miss Jennifer Ceresoli, 23, both with the Defense Department, are in serious condition at Alexandria Hospital. All four women lived at 2131 Massachusetts ave. nw.

The driver of the truck, Horace Pulley, 24, of 1702 Duke st., Alexandria, also is in serious condition at Alexandria Hospital.

It was first reported that Dodson, an Alexandria Dairy Products Co. truckman was the driver of the truck but Park police later said Pulley was behind the wheel. They added that the truck was owned by the American News-Co. in Alexandria, and was not an Alexandria dairy truck as first reported.

Police said the truck was traveling at high speed on the wrong side of the road and its lights were out. There is an ordinance prohibiting trucks from traveling on that highway.

No charges have been placed. A hearing will be held before United States Commissioner Stanley King in Alexandria at a date to be set.

Mrs. Sabbow came to Washington from Winchester, Mass., only a short time ago.

A graduate of Duke University, Miss Finley was a former from Roanoke, Va., about 18 months ago.
